

THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN URBANIZATION AND CRIME RATES

Dimple-Research scholar

ABSTRACT

Urbanization refers to the population shift from rural to urban areas. This research investigates the potential link between urbanization and crime rates. The study might analyze data on crime statistics and population density in different cities. The findings can help us understand the complex factors that contribute to crime and inform policies for urban development and crime prevention.

